all the students, so each brings a bouquet of flowers.

Our principals,
accompanied by the

Mayor, officially open
the school year.

The pupils in the preparatory class, who first enter the school gate, are the most excited.

END OF SCHOOL YEAR

Classes finish by mid of June. End of school year is marked by two ceremonies, one dedicated to the eighth grade students, held a week earlier, and the ceremony that marks the beginning of holiday for students from preparatory classes to 7th.

Eighth form graduates say “Goodbye at School”, “Goodbye colleagues!”, singing Gaudeamus and enter the school yard through a tunnel of flowers.

The
schoolyard
is full of parents,
guests and
flowers.

Valedictorians receive
wreaths of flowers,
diplomas, money prize
offered by the Mayor.

The show is performed by small pupils, who usually dance.

A group of graduates in white shirts and blue ties are gathered outdoors, holding blue balloons. They are in the process of releasing the balloons into the air. The scene is festive and celebratory, with a clear blue sky and a church steeple visible in the background. The graduates are smiling and looking towards the balloons. The text is overlaid in the center of the image.

At the end of celebration, the graduates let their balloons fly away, as a symbol of their dreams .

A new chapter in their lives is about to open.

Ceremony for students in the other grades (1th-7th) is a joy for everybody, it announce the beginning of summer holiday.

A large, diverse group of people, including men, women, and children, are gathered together, looking in various directions. The scene appears to be an indoor event, possibly a school assembly or a community gathering. The background is slightly blurred, focusing attention on the people in the foreground. The overall atmosphere is one of anticipation and community.

Teachers, students, parents eagerly await the start signal of the longest holiday.

The best students in each field are awarded.

Students and teachers are dancing
together.

Beginning and end of school year are beautiful events in the life of our school.
